Bookstore Report:

There is $289.68 in the account. The cost of candy is going up.

Maintenance Report:

New seat rail for 67Q is here. Marv will install it on the next oil change.

Old Business:

Student pilots are coming along very well. Mike Dettloff got a taste of true Tawas crosswinds recently. Brian and Hunter are getting good flight time as well.

New Business:

The Fly-In is still on track. Weather pending, Flight Care will be there, The Coast Guard helicopter is looking very hopeful. And of course we are very much in need of volunteers. If you can help or know of anybody, contact Jay.

Other Business:

The US military will be doing joint trading exercises at Wurtsmith in August and is looking to involve 6D9 in some missions. Congratulations to Bill Deckett on becoming Iosco County Director of Public safety. We are definitely in good hands

Adjournment: Meeting adjourned at 6:35 PM

Next Meeting: May 9th
